D A h
1. The Lord once stood on the shore
G A
He sought people ready to follow Him
D
And become fishers of men
A D D7
Through God's words of truth.

G D
Ref.: O Lord, this is You who have found me
e A D D7
From your lips I could hear my name.
G D

And my boat I do leave on the shore now,
e A D
Since today I'll be fishing with you.

2. I live the life of the poor man
All I have is my hands so ready to do work with you
with all strength of my pure heart.

3. You need my hands for service
my young heart full of enthusiasm,
My sweat while working
My solitude.

4. Today we'll be off together
Fishing hearts in the sea of the souls
With the net of your truth
And the word of real life.
